

Networks, Nodes and Knowledge: from virtual to real

Digital World Meeting

Hello Digital Festival Event

Hotel du Vin

Church Street, B3 2NR Birmingham

Sponsored by

Wednesday 13 October 2010

14:30 - 17:00 Business plans reviewed by panel from Advantage Business Angels, Anthony Collins Solicitors, Beer & Partners, Blueberry Consultants, Eversheds, FD Solutions, ICT Practice, MedilinkWMM, Mercia & Midven (private).

17:30 Reception & posters

18:00 Session 1

Nick Burton, Executive Producer for Communications and Technology at Rare, which is readying for the launch of Kinect Sports for Microsoft's new motion sensing system, asks "Where next for games?" and explores how far this new mode of human computer interface could take us.

David Burden, Managing Director of Daden Limited, a virtual worlds and AI specialist based at Birmingham Science Park, using virtual worlds for education, training and visualisation, and a double prize-winner in year's US Federal Virtual Worlds Challenge

18:30 Panel Discussion

19:00 Intermission

19:15 Session 2

Jonnie Turpie, founder of Maverick TV, is a pioneer of new digital technologies for television and media businesses, and is leading the production of several strands for Teachers TV, the first digital channel for professionals, 4Talent for Channel 4.

Lucy Hooberman, director of Digital Media and Innovation at the University of Warwick is taking the skills and knowhow of digital media and the language of creativity and innovation into new areas to foster growth and acceleration into the digital economy.

19:45 Panel discussion

20:15 Networking over food and drinks

21:00 Close

Tickets available from sciencecapitaldigital.eventbrite.com

Partners

Anthony Collins
solicitors

FD Solutions
The flexible Finance Director service

Birmingham Science City
ideasforlife

www.ScienceCapital.co.uk

THE LUNAR SOCIETY

netnak

UnLtd*